

CLOUDBURST FLOODS GOLDFIELD, NEV., AND CAUSES AT LEAST FIVE DEATHS

Several Scores of Dwellings Carried Away and Merchandise Damaged
CITY LIES IN DARKNESS
So Far as Known Death List Is Limited to Two Women, A Man and Two Children

SEVERAL MINES ARE FLOODED

GOLDFIELD, Nevada, Sept. 13.—Goldfield, swept by a torrent from a cloudburst today that caused the loss of at least five lives, carried away scores of dwellings and did damage to merchandise stock estimated at $100,000 was in darkness tonight and at a late hour rain was again falling in a volume amounting to almost a second cloudburst.

So far as could be ascertained in the result and confusion, the death list was limited to two women, a man and two children. Most of the buildings carried away were the homes of miners living the two gulches down which the flood water poured.

Several Mines Flooded.
It was reported that several of the mines were flooded. Washouts will cut off the town from rail communication for several days.

Citizens patrolled the desolated districts tonight to prevent looting.

The streets of Goldfield were flooded by a cloudburst at 11 o'clock today, followed by hail and the heaviest electrical storm in the history of Southern Nevada. Five were drowned, a number of houses were carried away and the power plant that lights the town was flooded.

Goldfield is located in a basin with the Malpais range to the south and two deep gulches skirting the east and west sections of the town. Within an hour these gulches were roaring rivers and all houses in their paths were swept away.

Tonight the known dead are: Mrs. DeGarmo, and child.
A laundress, name supposed to have been Peit.

Two unidentified persons.
The latter's bodies were floating down gulches but were not recovered.

The Nevada California Power Company suffered great damages putting all the mines of Goldfield and Tonopah out of commission temporarily. Business houses having goods stored in the basement lost heavily.

Women in Rescue Work

Women assisted the men in the work of rescue while the rain came down in torrents, accompanied by hail. Many hairbreadth escapes are reported, marooned women and men being rescued from floating houses by means of ropes. The telephone and power wires all are down as are all the telegraph wires. Communications with Tonopah is cut off and rumors of loss of life there cannot be verified.

Goldfield is in darkness tonight but the scores of homeless persons are cared for by those whose dwellings escaped the flood.

CHARGE THAT TROOPERS TRAMPLED ON FLAG

In Effort to Clear Streets After Parade Cavalryman Rides Against Man Carrying Flag—Soldiers Return It to Its Owners.

Calumet, Mich., Sept. 13.—An American flag, carried by a striking copper miner, today was ridden down and trampled in the street by state cavalrymen, according to a charge that was made by a committee of strikers, who protested against the alleged harsh treatment of miners by troopers.

There was a long parade of strikers today through the streets. After the parade had broken up the streets remained full of disbanded marchers, their wives and friends, who gathered in groups to discuss the strike or ran about shouting, for the Western Federation of Miners.

In the effort to clear the street after the parade, a cavalryman rode against a man carrying an American flag. The flag was torn from the staff and soon was trampled under foot by other cavalrymen, who rode up to the place. As soon as the soldiers saw that the flag had been ridden down, they gathered it up and returned it to its owners.

The strikers later assembled and drafted a protest, which was wired to the governor, demanding respect from the troopers for the flag and the right to parade the streets.

Moffitt Arrives in Calumet.
John A. Moffitt, sent here by Secretary Wilson of the federal department of labor to offer mediation in the copper miners' strike, arrived today and tomorrow will confer with representatives of both sides.

BODY OF GAYNOR IS ON WAY TO NEW YORK

BODY OF LATE MAYOR OF METROPOLIS ABOARD LUSITANIA AT SEA

Receives Honors in Liverpool Seldom Paid to Any Except England's Most Illustrious Dead—Will Arrive in New York Friday.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 13.—The body of the late mayor of New York, William J. Gaynor, is now aboard the steamer Lusitania at sea, after receiving honors here seldom paid to any except England's most illustrious dead.

The Lusitania sailed this evening for New York and is due there next Friday.

All night the body of the late mayor lay in state guarded by details of picked police. Curator officials received the coffin on board the Lusitania. Representatives of the lord mayor and several city councilmen were in attendance.

Acting under the instructions of the lord mayor, the public extended every possible courtesy. The body was removed without the usual examination and was placed in a mortuary chapel aboard ship. Rufus Gaynor, the mayor's son, accompanied by the American consul, Horace Lee Washington, boarded the Lusitania at 5 o'clock and was received by Captain Charles and City Councilman Maxwell, to whom he expressed his deep gratitude for the honors which Liverpool had paid his father.

On the tender the oak coffin, enclosed in a plain box which was covered with the American flag, was almost buried in flowers. In the chapel the official American ensign of the Lusitania was draped over the coffin.

Until the Lusitania went alongside the landing stage at 1 o'clock in the afternoon all flags were at half mast. When the ship enters New York harbor the American flag will be hoisted at half mast at the forepeak, while the crew stands at attention. Eight uniformed quarter-masters will carry the body ashore, where it will be received by the civil authorities. Officials, clergy and citizens joined in their efforts to pay due respect to the dead legislator of New York. As the Lusitania swung down stream the flags on all ships were dipped to half mast and other liners saluted with hoarse blasts of their sirens.

Will Be No Military Display

New York, Sept. 13.—The funeral of William J. Gaynor on Monday, September 22, will be without military display. The mayor would have wished it so, Mrs. Gaynor said today at a conference at the Gaynor home in Brooklyn.

With Mayor Kline and other officials she removed the plans for the obsequies that had been arranged. The only escort of his coffin on its arrival next Friday will be mounted police.

Carriage on the idea of simplicity at the funeral it has been decided that the musical part of the service will be carried out only by the Trinity choir and organ. Mrs. Gaynor has chosen only one number, the Bach-Gounod "Ave Maria" of which the mayor was very fond.

Private services will be held at the Gaynor home Friday evening conducted by the Rev. Dr. Frank Pace of Calumet, Va., formerly pastor of St. John's Episcopal church in Brooklyn near the late mayor's residence.

In Peoria county in 56 precincts, out of 75 the Progressives polled but 73 votes.

WEEK MARKS ACUTE STAGE IN MEXICO

Mexican Congress Will Assemble Tuesday to Receive Huerta's Special Message

PATRIOTIC DEMONSTRATION

Patriotic Demonstration of Approval of the Existing Mexican Government Is Scheduled for the Same Day

U. S. TROOPS AND SMUGGLERS CLASH

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—In anticipation of important developments in connection with the Mexican problem next week, state department officials have been giving much attention to the execution of the plans for the withdrawal in safety of those Americans in Mexico, who can be induced to come out of the country.

The immediate result of the state department's warning was to gather a number of such refugees in the sea ports, but most of these have now been shipped to the United States and the American consuls in Mexico report a notable reduction in the number of Americans who are now in the country. It is believed those who are now in the country have decided to remain and take the chances of protection at the hands of the Huerta government. It has not been possible to secure an estimate of their number, but it is known that at least a majority of the Americans already have left the country.

Keep List of All Property

The American consular offices in Mexico have been keeping lists of all American property from which the owners have withdrawn in order to establish a basis for the settlement of claims that may arise after the revolutionary movement has receded. In each case the proper Mexican local officials have been notified of the withdrawal in order that he might take steps to prevent robbery or looting of the property. The president has expressly stated that his suggestion for the withdrawal of these Americans is not to be regarded as a step of his bureau to intervene in Mexico and that it was based solely upon the belief that in his last message to congress dealing with the subject of Mexico that as the situation in that country becomes more acute the danger to Americans will increase in proportion.

May Develop Acute Stage.
The next week is expected to mark the development of just such an acute stage as the president is supposed to have in mind. The Mexican congress will assemble Tuesday to receive a special message from General Huerta dealing with the rebellion and particularly with the influence upon that movement of the attitude of the United States government. It is realized in official circles here that much importance will attach to the tone of that communication.

Coincident with the message from Huerta to the Mexican congress will be the patriotic demonstration for the same day. Under orders from the government army officers have been gathering up all of the able-bodied citizens not already in the military service and arming and drilling them under the claim that they were being prepared to participate in this demanded demonstration of approval of the existing government. With the military ardor of these thousands of undisciplined spirits kindled, anti-American demonstrations might follow, but Huerta has given strict instructions that every effort be made to repress any such ebullitions.

U. S. Troops Shoot Smugglers

San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 12.—One Mexican killed, six others wounded, fourteen more captured, was the result today of a brief battle between Mexican war material smugglers and a detachment of the 14th U. S. cavalry at Carizzo Springs, Texas.

The Mexicans had attempted to carry a large shipment of ammunition and rifles across the border from a point about fifty miles in the interior of Texas. They abandoned most of this contraband when attacked by a sheriff's posse a few days ago. The ammunition was said to be for constitutionalists, but the latter announced they would execute the smugglers if caught on Mexican soil.

The American soldiers intercepted the Mexicans in their flight near Almito Crossing, at the Rio Grande river. A few rifle shots accompanied the order to halt. The smugglers were led by an American whose name has not been learned and who defiantly declared his party would never surrender. The soldiers were then ordered to open fire and at the first volley one Mexican was mortally wounded and several received minor wounds.

The American leader immediately changed his mind and surrendered, together with the thirteen un-armed members of his party. All of the prisoners were taken to Windmill ranch and a surgeon was summoned to treat the wounded.

None of the pursuing party was injured and only two cavalry horses were hurt.

TWO DISTRICTS ARE COMBINED

UNION OF CHAMPAIGN AND DANVILLE REDUCES NUMBER TO SEVEN

Superintendents Will Decide Meeting Place for Next Year, Which Is to Be Permanent—Laymen Re-elect Officers—Dr. H. H. O'Neal Resigns—Rumor of Change at Brooklyn Church.

Shelbyville, Ill., Sept. 13.—In the Illinois Methodist conference here this afternoon it was announced that the Champaign and Danville districts would be combined, giving the conference seven districts instead of eight. H. C. Gibbs, superintendent of the Danville district, becomes superintendent of the combined districts and Reverend F. B. Madden, superintendent of the Champaign district, goes to the Quincy district. W. F. Wohlforth, who retires at this conference as superintendent of the Quincy district, is expected to go to Charleston. Some rumors have it that the consolidation may be extended further so as to have but six districts.

Meeting Place Permanent

The place for the next meeting has not been selected and as no city offered to entertain the conference, it was placed in the superintendents' hands to decide on a meeting place. It will not be announced at this conference, but when the report is given, the place chosen will be permanent. The official board of the first church in Shelbyville met Saturday evening and will ask that Shelbyville be chosen. Many favor a permanent location on a self-supporting plan and Springfield and Decatur are also talked of as meeting places.

Seven young men were admitted into full membership to the conference, only four men seeking admission on trial. The Woman's Foreign Missionary society has increased its gifts, $2,000 making $35,000 for the year.

The Americans brought copies of a Chihuahua newspaper which state that following the recent defeat of Terrazas' federal command at San Andres by Pancho Villa, federal prisoners were stood up and shot beside a big camp fire at night and that their bodies were then tossed into the fire by the rebels. Many were still alive when thrown into the fire the papers say.

WRIT IS ISSUED BY FEDERAL COURT

Thaw Granted Writ of Habeas Corpus Returnable at Littleton On Next Tuesday

NOT AGREEABLE TO JEROME

Jerome Asserts There Was Gentleman's Agreement to Make No Court Move Pending Hearing Before Governor Folkner

THAW SPENDS VERY QUIET DAY

COLEBROOK, N. H., Sept. 13.—The perpetually recurring writ of habeas corpus which has so often dotted the career of Harry Kendall Thaw since his incarceration in Mattawam, as the insane slayer of Stanford White, dropped out again this afternoon in his fight to resist extradition from New Hampshire after his unexpected deportation from the Dominion of Canada. This time, and for the first time in the history of Thaw's efforts to regain his liberty, the writ was issued by a federal court.

United States Judge Aldrich in the district of New Hampshire granted the application of three of the Thaw lawyers, Martin, Shurtley and Olmsted and made it returnable at Littleton on Tuesday next. William Travers Jerome, specially deputed to bring the fugitive back to the asylum heard the news with all grace and characterized that move as one of bad faith. There had been a gentleman's agreement he said, that neither side was to make a court move pending the extradition hearing before Governor Folkner in Concord next week.

To Meet an Emergency

The Thaw leaders, led by Moses H. Grossman said the writ was one of expediency and had been obtained to meet an emergency should the governor refuse a full hearing on the extradition matter and signing the requisition warrant for the return of Thaw over to officers of the State of New York. They had reason to believe now, they added, that a full hearing would be accorded the fugitive and in view of this it was probable that they would request on Tuesday that the habeas corpus hearing be continued.

"It seems to me," said Mr. Jerome grimly, "that this is trifling with the federal court. I should hesitate to apply for a writ in such circumstances."

Mother Telegraphs Governor

Thaw spent a very quiet day. There was no court hearing here. It has not been definitely decided when he will be removed to Concord but he will likely remain here until the governor sets a date for a hearing which may be Wednesday of next week or later. Tonight the fugitive gave out a telegram which his mother, Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw sent from Montreal to Governor Folkner. He added that she would not come here at present in view of the uncertain status of affairs. Mrs. Thaw's telegram in part stated that her son "has for five and a half years endured untold hardships and indignities in one of New York's worst penal institutions" and that "finally he took the only recourse left a fight for the freedom denied through malice." She then appeals to the governor for a fair and impartial hearing.

Few Canadians Remain.
Most of the Canadians who followed Thaw across the border and in their sympathetic enthusiasm spoke openly of their desire to assist him in another break for liberty, had left Colebrook tonight and the talk of kidnapping, so rampant for a few days, died down considerably. The Thaw lawyers still contended that they feared "strong arm" work on the part of the authorities from New York and the guard about the fugitive's room was maintained to-night as usual though somewhat diminished.

Sheriff Hornbeck of Dutchess county, New York, in which Mattawam is situated, arrived in Colebrook tonight with the requisition warrant signed by Acting Governor Glynn.

Mr. Jerome inspected the papers to see that they were letter perfect and will lay them before the governor early next week.

Folkner Has Made No Plans.
Rochester, N. H., Sept. 13.—Governor Samuel D. Folkner, at his home here tonight said that he did not know what effect, if any, the granting of an application for a writ of habeas corpus in the United States district court today would have on the extradition proceedings in the Thaw case.

"As a matter of fact," the governor said, "I have made no plans. Any hearing that I may hold in the affair will take place later than Tuesday. It will be Wednesday at the earliest."

Governor Folkner said that the business had not reached him as yet. "Officially," he said, "I do not know that Mr. Thaw is in our state, except for the requests of counsel that he be given a hearing."

He added that he had not yet been served with the requisition warrant which Sheriff Hornbeck of Dutchess county brought from Acting Governor Glynn of New York, calling for Thaw's extradition.

The governor said he had not received a telegram from Mrs. Thaw, but added that it might be on his desk at Concord.

IMPEACHMENT COURT HAS RIGHT TO JUDGE

SUPREME COURT OF NEW YORK IS POWERLESS TO INTERFERE

Court of Impeachment Also Has the Authority to Decide Validity of the Action of Assembly in Adopting Articles of Impeachment in Sulzer Case.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 13.—The supreme court of New York state is powerless to interfere with the prerogatives of the court of impeachment which is to convene next Thursday to hear the charges filed against Governor William Sulzer. The impeachment court not only has the right to judge the guilt or innocence of the accused legislative, but also has authority to determine the validity of the action of the assembly in adopting articles of impeachment.

Once impeached Governor Sulzer's legislative functions were transferred automatically to Acting Governor Glynn until the impeachment court has passed upon the charges. Supreme Court Justice Chester so decided today in denying an application made in behalf of Samuel Fowler, of Rensselaer, for a writ of prohibition designed to prevent the court of impeachment from hearing Sulzer charges. Fowler's attorneys served notice that they would take an immediate appeal but the case is not expected to reach the court of appeals before the impeachment trial begins.

The proceedings were instituted as a taxpayer's action to restrain the impeachment court from convening on the ground that the assembly could not legally adopt articles of impeachment at an extraordinary session.

Levy Repeats Statement

New York, Sept. 13.—When Chairman Levy learned this evening that Dr. Cady Herick, the governor's counsel, had denied that Mr. Sulzer had any intention of resigning and had sent Levy a telegram asking him to name "the prominent lawyer" referred to in his statement of today, he said:

"I will repeat that a prominent New York lawyer who has been a friend of Governor Sulzer for years, came to me this morning and asked if it could be arranged to drop these proceedings if Governor Sulzer would resign. This man told me that he had had a talk with Governor Sulzer in Albany recently. Whether he was speaking to me as a representative of the governor I do not know, but I will not disclose his name unless he releases me from the confidence he imposed upon me."

MAY MAKE REPORT TO CONGRESS NEXT WEEK

Tariff Conferees Practically Finish Cotton, Flax and Hemp Schedules of Tariff Bill

PROTEST TAX ON BANANAS

Central American Diplomats Renew Protests Against Proposed Tariff On Bananas in Conference With Bryan

CLOSE GENERAL DEBATE ON CURRENCY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—The tariff conferees got along so well today that Chairman Simmons of the senate finance committee predicted tonight that their report will be made to the two houses of congress next week.

The conferees today practically finished the cotton schedule and the flax and hemp schedule. A few paragraphs in each were left for further consideration. In the cotton schedule changes were large agreed to. The classification of stocks was changed and a slightly higher rate placed upon them.

Flax and hemp were allowed to remain on the free list where the senate put them. The paragraphs relating to baring and bury which caused much debate in the senate were not acted upon. House leaders insist the senate rates on these articles would mean a decrease in revenue of several million dollars annually. The difficulty over free listing ferro manganese and pig iron in the steel schedule, the only serious disagreement that so far has developed, was not taken up today but it was said a settlement will be reached on it Monday.

Protest Tariff on Bananas.
General Chamorro, Nicaraguan minister, and other Central American diplomats, held a further conference today with Secretary Bryan and it is understood, renewed their protest against the proposed tariff on bananas, included in the tariff bill now pending before the conference committee. In its protest, the Central American delegation is unanimous in declaring that the imposition of the tariff would curtail the banana trade and so interrupt the reciprocal trade relations with the United States now being carried on over established routes.

Wind up General Debate

The house tonight wound up four days of general debate on the administration currency bill. Republicans and Progressives criticised the measure on various points and Democrats lauded it as the means of evolving as a solid financial system.

Altogether some three score members devoted themselves to attacking four principal points regarding the measure. First, they condemned the secret committee meetings and the secret Democratic caucus which handled the measure. Progressives also found this an inspiring theme. Second, the scheme of making the banks of the country subscribe capital and deposits for the conduct of the proposed federal reserve banks was condemned. Third, the broad powers given the federal reserve board were deplored and it was charged that the board would become a political asset. Fourth, the fact that the proposed new currency is to be in the nature of a government obligation, although issued by the banks which accepted as making possible a demand on the gold reserve in the treasury such as characterized the Cleveland administration.

To be Taken up in Detail Tomorrow.
Several Democrats joined with the minority in their attacks on the methods under which the bill was framed but all announced that they would accept the judgment of the party and vote for the bill.

The measure will be taken up in detail for amendment on Monday and it is expected the detailed discussion will be extensive. But under the caucus action of the Democrats the possibility of any change being written into the measure in the house is remote. Chairman Glass of the banking and currency committee who opened the debate made the closing speech tonight.

MISS EMMA SCOTT A SEPTEMBER BRIDE

Weds Mr. Robert Raper Jennings of Jenkins, Ky., in pretty Ceremony—Dr. J. R. Harker Officiates.

A home wedding, marked with beauty and simplicity, took place Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Scott, 1156 South Main street, when their daughter, Miss Emma Gertrude Scott, became the bride of Mr. Robert Raper Jennings. The ceremony was said in the presence of relatives and close friends of the young people, Dr. Joseph R. Harker, president of the Woman's college, officiating.

The Scott home was given an added touch of attractiveness by the use of fall foliage, green and white being the prevailing colors. Hydrangea, ferns and asparagus were used in the hallway and on the bannister; in the parlor ferns, roses and asters, in the living room, where the marriage took place, the large mantle on the south side of the room was festooned with golden rod, asparagus and ferns. Two loops of asparagus and ferns were caught together in front of the floral embankment, making a canopy, in the center of which hung a huge wedding bell made of hydrangea blossoms and lilies.

Four little ribbon bearers led the way for the bridal party. They were Mildred Laney, Lella Barnhart, Glena Carlisle and Mary Frances Scott. Little Annabelle Scott, aged two years, was the ring bearer. All the children were dressed in white and carried a white rose. The bride and groom appeared next, followed by the minister, Dr. J. R. Harker. The ring service was used and the troth were plighted in a most impressive manner. A fervent prayer for the happiness and prosperity for the young people concluded the ceremony.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of shadow lace over messaline satin, with triple flounce, and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Scott and received her education in the public schools here and also attended the Woman's college, graduating in the art department in 1904. She afterwards studied in the Art Institute in Chicago. Following the work here she was for two years superintendent of art and design in the schools at Oshkosh, Wis. Last June she completed two years as superintendent of art and design in the public schools and high school of Bloomington. She is a young woman of talents and culture and her ability has been signally recognized. Her felicitous manner has made her admired and loved by her broad acquaintance.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Margaret Jennings of Elizabethtown, North Carolina. He graduated from Lake College, Winona, Indiana, and the Y. M. C. A. Institute and Training school, Chicago, Lake Geneva, last year. For a short time he did Y. M. C. A. work in Washington, D. C. Since June he has been secretary of the Miners' Y. M. C. A. at Jenkins, Ky. He is a young man of strong christian character, high ideals and progressive in thought and deeds.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Jeanette Scott, a sister of the bride, played "Mountain Zephyrs," "To a Wild Rose," by Mac Dowell, and the wedding march from Lohengrin, as the bridal party entered. During the ceremony she gave an arrangement of "Anna Laurie" and "Sweet and Low," and at the close a selection from Faust.

An elaborate wedding collation was served in the dining room, the dining table being decorated with a large jardiniere filled with hydrangea blossoms.

When the wedding cake was cut Miss Mae Scott and Barnard Camm tied for the ring. Allen Carlisle received the key and Jonas Scott the darling needle.

The young people received many pretty and useful presents. They expected to remain in the city till Monday when they will go to Louisville, Ky., where Mr. Jennings will attend a state secretary's conference, after which they will go to their home in Jenkins, Ky.

Among those from out of the city to attend the wedding were Mr. Kent C. E. Wheeler, Chicago; Charles Scott, Del Norte, Col.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Witt, Farmersville, Ill.; L. B. Scott, Troy, Ill.; Mr. Charles Gibson, Chicago; Miss Martha Hudson, Oklahoma.

Miss Nina Slaten of Grafton is the guest of Miss Louise Gates.

SCHOOL LAW WILL BE HARD TO EVADE

SUPT. BLAIR WRITES OF NEW TUITION MEASURE.

Gives Answer in Reply to Letter on Subject Written by H. M. Todd of Arnold—Says District Anticipation Warrants May Be Issued—Supt. Gore Comments on Statute.

According to a letter which State Superintendent Blair has written to H. M. Todd of Arnold, Ill., district school directors will find it difficult to evade the new law relative to paying the tuition of pupils who wish to attend a high school in an adjoining district. The superintendent says: "If the high school selected complies with all the requirements of the law, that is to say offers a program of studies extending through four school years, the school directors of the home district cannot legally withhold approval as their duty in this particular is simply ministerial." He also says that "When there are no funds in the hands of the treasurer applicable for the payment of tuition and other purposes * * * warrants may be issued against and in anticipation of taxes for tuition and other incidental expenses. With these facts in mind you will see how difficult it is for a school board to evade its duty in this particular matters."

70 Tuition Pupils.
There are now seventy tuition pupils in the Jacksonville High school and more are expected this week, perhaps five or more. One-fourth of these tuition pupils do not come under the tuition law, as the pupils come from other high schools to take advantage of scholarship and standing in the local high school which is credited in the North Central association. Nineteen pupils have had their application blanks filled out properly by directors of their respective districts.

Monday is the day set by Superintendent Gore for handing in the approval slips. If there is any cause for delay added time will be given.

Superintendent Gore on Tuition.
In regard to the tuition Superintendent Gore said yesterday: "I do not think the tuition is too high."

This payment of tuition is simply a matter of business. If it costs us $62.41 per capita to maintain the high school, why should we furnish education for non-residents at a cheaper rate? We want the tuition pupils to keep coming. In a short time I expect the high school to be too large for our present quarters. The building of an eighth grade is only a matter of time. I believe in developing our high school to the full extent. We should add additional courses in agriculture and such lines as would make our curriculum more inviting to the graduates of the rural districts.

In cases where the districts do not have the money to pay tuition the directors should anticipate loans. Jacksonville anticipates this year to maintain a high school and there is no reason why school directors should not anticipate to pay tuition.

What Law Says.
Senate Bill 60. Be it enacted by the people of the State of Illinois, represented in the general assembly: That, the graduates of the eighth grade residing in a school district in which no public high school is maintained, shall be admitted upon the payment of tuition to any public high school, with the consent of the school board of the district in which such high school is situated.

The tuition of such pupils shall be paid by the district in which they reside, from any funds not otherwise appropriated, but in no case shall the tuition per pupil exceed the per capita cost of maintaining the high school selected. The parent or guardian shall select the high school to be attended, subject to the approval of the directors of the home district. Provided, however, that the high school selected offers a program of studies extending through four school years. The application of this act shall not relate to districts that provide work in the ninth and tenth grades except to pupils that have completed the work of such grades.

Letter of Mr. Todd.
The following is the letter of Mr. H. M. Todd to Superintendent Blair: Arnold, Ill., Sept. 8, 1913.

F. G. Blair, State Superintendent Schools, Springfield, Ill.
Dear Sir: I am referring to you for a little information into the law recently passed under Senate Bill 60.

Our boy, 14 years old, passed the county final examination of the eighth grade and was 23 in a list of over 200.

Our district will not have the high school taught the coming year and Jacksonville high school is our nearest and most convenient place to send the boy to high school, but our directors refuse to give their approval for the boy to go elsewhere although they will not have the high school taught in the district, although the teacher they have employed is capable of teaching the higher grades. Our directors state that the reason they will not give their approval is that they did not make any appropriation for such expenses and that they will not have enough money to pay tuition for the children that passed the eighth grade in the district last spring. In the case mentioned above, what is to be done with the boy? As I understand it we must send a child to school until he is 16 or we are liable to pay a fine for truancy, but in the name of common sense what are we to do? Pay his tuition out of our pockets when it should be paid by the district taxpayers? Senate bill 60 says, or rather reads, subject to the approval of the home district. Suppose they object, what then? If the district has not got the money and failed to appropriate why can't they borrow the money

Superintendent Blair's Letter.
Superintendent Blair's letter reads as follows:

Dear Sir:
I have received your letter of the 8th instant, and it has interested me greatly. I sympathize with you in your efforts to give your son a good common school education. Now, the act regarding free high school privileges for graduates of the 8th grade is simple enough if approached from the right side. It provides, among other things, that any graduate of the 8th grade who resides in a school district in which no public high school is maintained shall be admitted, upon the payment of tuition, to any public high school that offers a four-year course of studies. It provides, further, that the parent shall be authorized to select the high school to be attended. The consent of the board of education that maintains the high school should be first secured. The parent should then request the school directors of the district in which he resides to approve the high school so selected. If the high school selected complies with all the requirements of the law, that is to say, offers a program of studies extending through four school years, the school directors of the home district cannot legally withhold approval, as their duty in this particular matter is simply ministerial. The power of approval is vested in them so that they may require the student to attend some good four-year high school.

Difficult to Evade Law.

It is clear to me that there are a number of districts that are seeking to evade the provisions of this act. It is most difficult, however, to do so. Each district is authorized to levy a special tax of 1 1/2 per centum for educational purposes. The district is authorized to levy a tax of the same rate for building purposes. Now, the law strictly requires that the cost of all repairs and improvements and special assessments, together with the principal of and interest upon any outstanding bonded indebtedness shall be paid from the building fund. Do the school directors of your district levy a suitable tax for building purposes? The supreme court has repeatedly held that taxes levied for one purpose cannot be legally used for that of the other. In addition to the foregoing observations, each district will receive an added amount from the state distributive fund. That is to say, $3,000,000 has been appropriated, annually, for the next two years. An additional tax levy for educational or building purposes, as the case may require, may be made at any time prior to the extension of taxes by the county clerk. That officer usually begins his extension about December 1 after the board of equalization has finished its labors. Your attention is invited to the last sentence in section 190 of the general school law.

Warrants May Be Issued.

Unless all the foregoing revenues and receipts are expended for other school purposes, a district cannot avoid paying the tuition of an eighth grade graduate. The funds in the hands of the treasurer held to the credit of the district is simply a checking account against which orders may be issued for the payment of tuition or any other incidental expenses.

Charles Price a colored man who had twenty or more drafts in his possession signed by O. F. Buft, cashier of the Avers National bank was arrested last night by Policeman Arenz on suspicion. The officer couldn't understand what a man would be properly doing with so many drafts and following the arrest Chief Davis took the matter up with Mr. Buft. He found however, that the drafts had been secured in the proper way and that Price has the habit of buying a draft whenever he gets a dollar or two ahead.

SCHOOL BUILDING REPAIRS.

In several of the school buildings of Jacksonville there is plastering, painting and other work which greatly needs attention. This work should have been done during the summer season, while school buildings were unoccupied, but even now it should be done. Members of the board of education have stated that this work could not be done, because there was no money on hand with which to pay the bills. The fact is that the board now has $54,000 in the building and repair fund and that this can and should be drawn upon for funds to keep the various school buildings of the city in good and proper condition.

Members of the board erroneously maintain that this fund was levied for a new school building and cannot be used for repairs. The fund was raised for building and repairs and it does not seem that the board is using the best business judgment to overlook the matter of repairs and permit building property to deteriorate when funds are on hand for the very purpose of keeping the buildings in repair.

Another reason advanced by at least one member of the board for failure to make needed repairs and improvements is that bills must have the approval of at least three members of the board to insure payment and that under present conditions if he were to have repairs made in the ward he represents that only two signatures could be secured in approving the expenditures. The Journal would hesitate to believe that any member of the board of education is so narrow minded that he would refuse to sanction an expenditure for needed repairs in any ward simply because he did not agree with other members on matters entirely foreign to repairs.

For reasons which the public is not exactly able to comprehend the board of education seems to have abandoned the idea of beginning the erection of an eighth grade building this year, so that there will be no need of expenditure from the building and repair fund this year for the proposed building and there is all the more reason why the funds on hand should be utilized in keeping the people's school property in good condition. With money on hand there is no good cause why Jacksonville school children should be housed in rooms where plaster has fallen and where walls are dingy and dark because of a lack of paint.

TO REDUCE PUMPING COST.

The extensive work of installing the new electric generator at the city light plant is almost complete and Commissioner Brennan said, Saturday, that he was waiting now simply for some steam pipe and valves which should have been received before this. As soon as this installation can be completed the city will begin pumping from the Widenham-Daub wells with its own current. The pumping has been in progress from the wells now for the past five weeks. By special agreement the Railway and Light company pumped from the wells for the first four weeks at the maximum charge of $950 and at the rate which is now being charged the monthly cost for pumping will be about $1,150. As soon, however, as the steam fittings referred to are received the city will begin pumping with its own power and thus a very large saving will be effected. Mr. Brennan's idea is that if the flow from the wells keeps up its volume that with the installation of a smaller pump there that the city could use those wells as the sole source of supply and the regular pumping station as reserve. Out at the pumping station for the past five weeks there has been no work done at all other than to have firemen on duty and the fires banked. If the other pump, however, were installed at the Widenham-Daub wells and the supply continued to be satisfactory then the fires at the pumping station could be drawn and the property simply placed in charge of a watchman.

LIGHT PLANT IMPROVEMENT.

While the mayor and commissioners have made no definite statement on the subject, it is understood that they are planning to bring up the light proposition at a special election again some time in October.

ber. In all probability if the matter is presented it will be in the same form as at the former special election, as Commissioner Brennan has had no occasion to change his ideas as to what is needed to secure proper lighting equipment for the city of Jacksonville. At the former election the proposition came within a few votes of carrying and there were many people who did not vote at the time who said afterward that they would have put in a ballot in favor of the proposition if they had supposed it was in danger of not carrying. Recent weeks and months have more than ever emphasized how badly the city needs more light and it is entirely likely that if another election were called that a majority of the people would express themselves as in favor of a new plant.

UTILITY FRANCHISES.

While the conferences between city council and Mr. Miser, representing the Railway and Light company were called off during the week it is possible that the ordinances will come up for consideration at the regular session of the city council tomorrow. If they are considered at that time or made an order for a special session the railway ordinance will probably be taken up and considered one section at a time. In the ordinance which City Attorney Thompson prepared by order of the council covering the street railway franchise, among other things, provisions were made for the light company to provide arc lights at intersections along all of its right of way; for the sprinkling of the street twice a day by the railway company; for a percentage amounting to 3 per cent on annual gross earnings of the company and for a possible tax of $10 a year per car. To one who considers the matter it seems likely that some of these provisions were put in for trading purposes and it is not likely that the council expects to get all the things that it is asking for in its several franchise ordinances.

As already stated the gas ordinance which City Attorney Thompson has prepared is very voluminous and aside from fixing the price of gas at $1 and making very strict provisions as to the quality of gas and the condition of meters, also has provisions for the auditing of the company's books and matters of like character. The ordinance provides that the price of gas may be fixed anew every five year period and it is understood that the company objects to this provision as well as the $1 gas.

In answering the argument for $1 gas, Mr. Miser has submitted figures of business done by the gas company during the past month. These figures, he maintains, are based on the actual receipts and expenditures, figuring only on a 6 per cent return upon the assessed value of the plant. These figures, it is understood indicate that the company is making only a very fair revenue at the price of $1.15, which it is now charging for gas. Mr. Miser has stated that he is willing for a committee representing the city officials or the city generally to be appointed to examine the company's books and to verify the statement that he has made. He has indicated that he will be willing to yield to the request for dollar gas if in any way the business which the company is now doing should be increased 25 per cent.

When it comes to the electric franchise, while that matter has not been discussed in public, at any rate, it is understood that the council and the company are in harmony and that the maximum price for electricity under the proposed franchise would be 10c, whereas the price now paid by the ordinary consumer is 13c.

The batteries were Reeve and Melton; Ferguson and McDougall. The younger players are brave enough to want to try again and an other game will be played next Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The GREAT SCOTT Theatre

If It's Good We Have It.

Open Every Week Day, Afternoon and Evening.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

This Theatre, Beginning Monday, Sept. 15th, will Offer Each Week Day Afternoon and Evening a Select Picture Program.

There is something refreshingly different about the pictures furnished at our theatre. The comedies are really humorous, and they do not offend. The "Western" and "War" films are thrilling and full of life, but they aren't "bloody" to the gruesome extreme. The dramas tell a real, interesting story, most times with a moral, and contain nothing suggestive or objectionable. The "scenics" show the beauty spots of the world that you and your friends could never see otherwise. The distinction between the films in our service and others is just the difference between knowing how to select and produce them on the screen to the satisfaction of every patron. Right now is the best time to investigate. Just tell us what you want. We are willing to be convinced and we'll lose no time producing the proof.

SEEK TO FREE MRS. EDWARDS FROM PENNSYLVANIA JAIL

Woman Sentenced to Death Years Ago is Still a Prisoner—Numerous Efforts in Her Behalf.

Reading, Pa., Sept. 13.—Another effort is to be made next week to free Mrs. Kate Edwards, who has been in the Perks county jail for twelve years under sentence of death for the murder of her husband, John Edwards. The case was quite unusual and attracted considerable attention throughout the country at the time. Everywhere a great deal of sympathy was manifested for the woman and numerous efforts have been made in the past to bring about the granting of a pardon for her. Four governors have failed to set a date for her execution and as a result Mrs. Edwards has spent twelve years in prison, longer than any other woman ever sentenced to death in this country.

She was sentenced in 1901, during the term of Governor Stone, who left the case for Governor Pennypacker, who in turn left the fixing of the date of execution to Governor Stuart. The latter passed it along to Governor Tener, who has never made a move in the matter. The case has been through all the state courts and has several times come up before the board of pardons without success. Now lawyers have drawn up a petition which will be presented to the board of pardons when it meets next Wednesday.

There are many remarkable features to the case of Mrs. Edwards, not the least remarkable being her transformation from an uncivilized almost brutish creature into a woman of fair school education and even a certain refinement and culture. She came to the prison vicious to the last degree, a drunkard, unkempt, desperate and intractable, almost like a wild beast. Good women, patient ministers and humane prison officials worked hard to civilize and reform her and accomplished wonders. They have awakened her conscience, taught her something of religion and have changed the whole course of her life. She learned to read and to write and something of other branches of a common school education and during the many years under the shadow of the gallows she acquired a knowledge of sewing, knitting, embroidery and other feminine occupations and became a good housekeeper.

The life history of Mrs. Edwards does not make cheerful reading. Born in squalor and extreme poverty, she became an orphan at the age of seven years. At the age of seventeen she was married to John Edwards, a drunken and ignorant quarryman. She was absolutely without education, like her husband, and soon developed into a drunkard, like Edwards. Edwards used to beat and choke her and made her his beast of burden. Five children were born to them and the family lived like animals in a small hut near the quarry where Edwards worked when he was not too drunk. Their only associates in their drunken debauches were negroes working in the quarry, for the white neighbors would have nothing to do with them. One of their most intimate companions was a negro named Samuel Greason.

On the morning of July 4, 1901, John Edwards was found dead in the vicinity of his home, with his skull crushed by some blunt weapon, probably a stone. Kate Edwards, his wife, her daughter, Mary, aged 14 years, Samuel Greason and three other negroes were arrested on suspicion of having murdered Edwards. Kate Edwards was tried at the September session of the Berks county court of oyer and terminer and was found guilty of murder in the first degree. The death sentence was imposed in December and at the same time Greason was tried and likewise convicted and sentenced to death. The other prisoners were discharged.

For four years, upon one allegation or another, the case was kept before the board of pardons, but the board refused to commute the sentence of the woman. The superior court and the supreme court likewise refused to interfere and in February of 1905 it seemed as if nothing could save the woman and the negro. Governor Pennypacker signed a document fixing February 16 for their execution. A voluminous petition in behalf of Mrs. Edwards was presented to the governor by a delegation of Ohio club women, but the governor refused to interfere.

Two days before the day set for her execution Mrs. Edwards signed a document in which she confessed her guilt and completely exonerated Greason. Both were granted a respite and after a special law had been passed by the legislature Grierson was again tried and acquitted. The woman's case remained as it had been before. She remained under sentence of death, but neither Governor Pennypacker nor any of his successors ever fixed a day for the execution of her death sentence. The daughter to which Mrs. Edwards gave birth a few months after her imprisonment was taken away from her shortly before the original date set for her execution and has been adopted by some wealthy woman.

MAY OPEN SESSIONS TO NEWSPAPERS.

New York, Sept. 13.—When the house of bishops of the Protestant Episcopal church meets October 8, at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in this city, it was learned a motion will at once be introduced to make its session as open to the newspapers and to the general public as are those of the house of deputies.

For the 128 years that the house of bishops has met in conventions its business has been conducted behind closed doors and only the results of the legislation has been known to the public. Some years ago at a convention in Baltimore, Bishop Henry C. Potter offered a resolution in favor of open proceedings, but this was voted down by a large majority.

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES.

Branch Rickey has come to terms with Robert Hedges of the St. Louis Browns, and following the draft meeting at Cincinnati next Monday will assume active management of the team.

Last Wednesday Ad Walsgast was up in the wilds of Oregon and to a press correspondent he sang a swan song to the effect that he would purchase a farm in the neighborhood of Medford and retire permanently from the ring. It appears now, however, that a long suffering ring following public is doomed to another disappointment at the hands of the Cadillac has-been. He arrived in Milwaukee on Friday ablaze with diamonds and totting a gold-headed stick. To the brewery village sports he stated he was not going to quit the ring, but in two weeks he would be ready to take on any of the game Wisconsin's boxing promoters were willing to stack him against. Mickey Sheridan, from Bubbly Creek, and ex-jockey, will do a turn in Racine this week. If the Badgers have the best interests of the public at heart they will match the Stock Jards pug against the Michigan bearcat, and if Mickey does not put him out of the running forever it will be necessary to dig up Terry McGovern, Young Griffis or a few other dead ones.

Sam Langford is barred by the New York boxing commission, but Wisconsin promoters are hot on his trail in an endeavor to match him with Cleve Hawkins, a handy Chicago colored boxer. If the Tar Baby agrees to terms the setting will be in Kenosha within a few weeks.

Go-Between, the famous half-stallion, winner of the Great Suburban at Sheepshead Bay track in 1906, fell dead under the wire at Reading, Pa., on Friday, just as he had won. Go-Between won many good races before he captured the last big Suburban at the Bay. At that time he was owned by Alex Shields and E. R. Thomas, the famous young high-flying financier. Billy Shields, a son of Alex, was the trainer and Willie Shaw the jockey. Go-Between held his troubles, or at least Shaw had, to win that race. Off to a bad start, he trailed the field for a mile. An opening at the head of the stretch gave Shaw his opportunity. He shot his charge to the outside, and out by one picked up the leaders, until at the wire he nosed out Irish Lad, with the great Redfern up. That race saw the best field of horses which ever faced a starter's barrier. Besides those mentioned, there were Running Water, Yankee Girl, The Pickett, McChesney and eleven other grand thoroughbreds, with such jockeys as Tommy and Guy Burns, Harry Phillips, Grover C. Fuller, Hicks George Odom and other stars of the pigskin.

Dutch Benz again demonstrated on Friday in the game at Philadelphia that he cannot go the full course at top speed. His limit when under a full head of steam and smoke is the sixth pole. Pitching air-tight ball at all times up to the fatal two-third distance, he then can be relied upon to hit the toboggan.

Comstock was in the fusillade at Boston on Friday, when Carrigan and his red hose crew combed 14 hits off him in 3-1-3 innings. And yet there are many who believe Comiskey overlooked a second Ed Walsh when he let Detroit take Ralph from Minneapolis.

The people in Chicago are fussed these days because of the frequent kidnapping of children in different parts of the city. At last accounts none of the bone from the big South Side ball yard had been missing and the full quota of Ivory answered roll call at the one to the rear of the county hospital on the West Side.

PENNSYLVANIA PRIMARIES WILL BE HELD NEXT TUESDAY

Election Promises to Show New Alignment of Political Forces—Will Be Held Under New Law.

Philadelphia, Sept. 13.—What is considered to be in many respects the most important political campaign ever waged in Pennsylvania virtually ended today. Next Tuesday a state wide primary will be held for the nomination of candidates for two superior judges, for municipal officials of all the leading cities and officials of the 67 counties of the state.

Neither the governorship nor any other of the high offices of the state are involved in the contest. Nevertheless, the primary of next Tuesday and the regular election to follow in November threaten revolutionary results and may lead to a complete realignment of the political forces and the changing of the political map of Pennsylvania.

The primary will be operated under radical new laws designed to make it possible for the electorate to select efficient, progressive and unbossed candidates for public office. The new election law, coupled with advanced ideas in municipal government which are to come into effect at the same time, are believed to sound the death knell of machine government.

The last legislature provided for radical changes in the system of government in third class cities, abolishing the mayor and council and establishment of a pure commission form of government. In the primaries next Tuesday a mayor and four commissioners will be nominated to govern 23 third class cities of the state. Non-partisan elections will be held in all the cities of Pennsylvania, except Philadelphia.

The fight in Philadelphia centers about the election of the councilmen county officials and nine municipal court judges. The municipal court is a new tribunal to try minor civil and criminal cases. The nine judges are to be chosen without regard to party affiliations.

The idea that machine government must be destroyed and that the new primary and election laws give opportunity to being about such destruction is paramount in the campaign. In Philadelphia and in nearly all the other important communities, the Washington party forces and the Democratic party are united to overthrow the so-called Republican machine.

Added importance is given to the primaries and election this year, as they are regarded as merely preparatory to the election of United States senator and governor next year. The reform element believes that a victory of the fusion forces this year, especially in the Republican strongholds of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh would make almost hopeless any successful fight next year by Senator Penrose for re-election, and would go far toward breaking down the control of the Republican organization of the state government.

In Pittsburgh there is no fusion and a triangular contest is being waged. Mayor Magee and William Finn, the Washington party state leader, have joined in the support of Congressman Stephen G. Porter for mayor, while the Republican faction that follows the leadership of Senator Oliver is behind the candidacy of Joseph Armstrong, former director of public works. The Democrats have a candidate in the field and the outcome of the primary, the hottest that Pittsburgh has known in years, is filled with uncertainty.

Among the cities which will nominate candidates for commission officers next Tuesday and elect them in November are Erie, Reading, Wilkes-Barre, Harrisburg, Johnstown, Altoona, McKeesport, York, New Castle, Williamsport, Easton, Hazleton, Oil City, Bradford, Franklin, Lebanon, Pittston, Monacahele and Titusville. All of these cities are to adopt the commission form of government in December. This new system carries with it the direct legislation principles of the initiative and referendum. The councilmanic system will be abolished and in its place will be a commission composed of the mayor and four commissioners.

The new law provides for non-partisan elections in all the cities of the state, except Philadelphia. Such elections, taking out of partisan politics municipal officers in practically all of the cities and judicial elections in every community, are expected to go far towards destroying the old party machines.

VETERANS REMEMBER GENERAL SEDGWICK.
Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 13.—Several handsome floral wreaths were placed today about the base of the memorial erected on the Gettysburg battlefield by the state of Connecticut in memory of Maj. Gen. John Sedgwick. The offerings were sent by the G. A. R. posts in various parts of the country in recognition of the fact that today was the centennial anniversary of General Sedgwick's birth.

General Sedgwick is remembered as one of the ablest and bravest of officers of the Army of the Potomac. In Cornwall, Conn., Sept. 13, 1813, he graduated from West Point in time to see active service in the Florida war against the Seminole Indians and in the Mexican war of some years later. Soon after the beginning of the civil war he was given command of a brigade of the Army of the Potomac. He was distinguished twice at Antietam and distinguished himself in the Chancellorsville campaign. At Gettysburg he made one of the most extraordinary forced marches on record to arrive in the field on the second day of the fighting. In 1864 General Sedgwick, in command of the Sixth army corps, took part in Grant's campaign in the Wilderness. He was directing the placing of some artillery in position in front of Spotsylvania Court House May 9, 1864, when he was instantly killed by a bullet from the rifle of a sharpshooter.

101 RANCH WILD WEST SHOW COMES HERE NEXT TUESDAY

Aggregation Is Said to Be the Largest of Its Kind Now in Existence—One of the Ranch Proprietors in Personal Charge.

The 101 Ranch Wild West, the big, fresh, clean, vigorous tented amusement organization from the Oklahoma prairies, owned jointly by Edward Arlington, long a conspicuous circus figure, and the three Miller Brothers, the most famous ranchmen of the southwest, will visit Jacksonville Tuesday next. Performances will be given in the afternoon and at night, and a typically western street parade will gladden the eyes and the hearts of young and old in the early forenoon.

The 101 Ranch Show is the most sensational new-comer in the history of canvas entertainments. Professionally organized only four years ago, it has already toured the length and breadth of this country, Canada and Mexico, and established a popular reputation which other earlier travelling enterprises have required decades to acquire. In cities great and small, it has given its inspiring tournament before cheering crowds. New York gave enthusiastic patronage for six consecutive weeks, at record never equalled by the other big circuses which annually make exhibition in the metropolis. Each year it has broken attendance figures at the great Coliseum in Chicago, Boston and San Francisco bid it welcome similarly vociferous. The 101 Ranch Show challenges any and all other competitors to prove public favor and patronage equalling that accorded this young giant of the west.

Mr. Miller in Charge.
Joseph C. Miller, senior of the three owners of the 101 Ranch, is in personal, active charge of the arduous performance. He promises that patrons will witness a tournament that departs absolutely from the familiar, tedious routine of the so-called "wild west" exhibitions. Its home and its origin are the Oklahoma range land. Every person and feature is real, vital and characteristic. The performers are not professionals, but men, women and children on a veritable "lark" from the 101 Ranch at Bliss. Every name is known on the ranches of the southwest for skill and daring in avocations of the range. Every champion of the lariat, sharpshooter, cowboy, trapper, rider and other participant is permanently on the payroll of the 101 Ranch. Herds of gaunt, long horned western steers and pure blooded buffaloes are fantastic figures. There are more than one hundred Indians, most of them fresh from the wigwams of the tribes who have their homes on the 101 Ranch land. Renowned chiefs and warriors, squaws, papooses and Indian belles and beauties are among them. They are making their first acquaintance with paleface civilization.

The 101 Ranch Show is today the largest "Wild West" show in the world, and perpetuates a picturesque, romantic period of American history surviving remotely and most notably on the sweeps of the prairie where the amusement institutions had its inception. The street parade is a moving, living narrative of the early west, and Miller Bros. & Arlington contend it has never had like or equal. It stretches more than a mile in length and introduces every figure and feature of the performances which follow later at the circus grounds.

IN SESSION AT WINNIPEG.

Not How Cheap but How Good

We are not in the furnace business to see how cheap we can build them. The trade of cheapening is one we never served in apprenticeship. It isn't worth a candle. The only way to get satisfaction out of furnace work is to do it as well as it can be done. We don't claim to have the cheapest furnace, but we do claim to give you more

Good, Honest Furnace Value

Than you can obtain elsewhere. You must not lose sight of the fact that in buying a cheap furnace you pay for what you get, and since the dealer who sells cheap furnaces makes as much profit as the one who puts up a good one, there is a great temptation to use the cheap price as a bait.

RECALLS OTHER TIMES IN JACKSONVILLE

DAY FAMILY CAME WEST FROM NEW ENGLAND ABOUT 1860.

Many Prominent People Lived Near
the Old Homestead—Recalls Bazar Held During War to Raise Funds
for the Wounded—Some Old Time
Business Firms.

Henry P. Day, a former resident of Jacksonville and now in Peoria, is publishing in the Peoria Star an autobiography. In the book, he has written extended articles which have already appeared the writer makes references to Jacksonville and Jacksonville people. For years Mr. Day was a brilliant newspaper writer and his articles still are well and carefully done. Some paragraphs from the autobiography referring to Jacksonville follow:

An Old New England Family.
"I was born in Greenfield, Franklin county, Massachusetts, Monday, February 5, 1835, at the home of my maternal grandfather, Colonel Ansel Phelps, on Church street. My father was Josiah Day, a watchmaker and jeweler. My mother's name was Martha Brester Phelps. I belonged to old New England families, two of my ancestors, Robert Day and Nathaniel Ely, having crossed the ocean
from England and settled in Cambridge, Mass., in 1634. They were registered as citizens, freemen and proprietors. Thence they went to Connecticut, where they were among the founders of Hartford.

"Colonel Ansel Phelps, my mother's father, was a quite prominent man in Massachusetts. He was a bookseller and publisher, editor and proprietor of the Greenville Gazette
and Courier, a member of the governor's council, a colonel of militia and a high degree Mason. He was also a devout member of the Congregational church.

"My father had a jewelry store in Greenfield, and when I was 3 or 4 years old he sold it out and taking my mother and myself with him went to Chicago, where he worked a year or so in the Mayo jewelry store as a journeyman. We resided on West Halsted street.

Prominent Jacksonville People.

"About 1860 we moved to Jacksonville, Morgan county, Ill., then known as the Athens of the West on account of the number of state and educational institutions located there. These comprised at the time the State Hospital for the Insane, Dr. McFarland, superintendent; the State Institution for the Education of the Deaf and Dumb, Dr. Philip Gillett, superintendent; the State Institution for the Education of the Blind, Dr. Rhoades, superintendent; Illinois college, the oldest in the state, Dr. Julian M.
Sturtevant, president; the Illinois
Female college (Methodist), and the Jacksonville Female academy (Presbyterian); besides the public schools.
Illinois college was founded by a band of Yale graduates, and the first president was Dr. Edward Beecher, a brother of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.
At that time Jacksonville was already quite a large town, and there were a number of fine residences. At one time the famous Senator Stephen
A. Douglas had resided and practiced law in Jacksonville. It was the home of Rev. William H. Milburn, who became noted as the 'Blind Man Eloquent,' who traveled in Europe extensively and who was in great demand in the United States
as a lecturer, among his subjects being 'What a Blind Man Saw in London, in Paris,' etc. He served also as chaplain of congress. Prof. Jonathan B. Turner, quite noted as an agriculturist, lived in Jacksonville.
The town had been the home of Governor Joseph Duncan, his large and imposing mansion, in front of which was a spacious park, his monument
in the center, and a semi-circular roadway, bordered with lofty trees, extending from the trees to the house. General Hardin, who distinguished himself in the war with Mexico, had also been a resident of Jacksonville. It was the home, too, of General Benjamin Grierson, who was noted as a union army raider in the war of the rebellion. Another prominent citizen was Hon. Richard Yates, Sr., war governor of Illinois, afterwards United States senator and father of Governor Richard Yates, Jr.
In Jacksonville resided also Dr.
Hiram K. Jones, a noted Platonist lecturer before the Concord school of philosophy and founder of a philosophical society, the American Akademe, which published a journal of the same name. Morgan county was the home of two well known cattle men of early days, very extensive in their dealings, Jacob Strawn and John T. Alexander. Mr. Strawn built an opera house in Jacksonville, at which appeared many of the operatic, theatrical, musical and lecture attractions of those days, among them
Mrs. Scott Siddons, Edwin Booth,
John McCullough, Lawrence Barrett,
Edwin Forrest, Cassell & Campbell,
Christine Nilsson, Carey, Ole Bull,
Rubenstein, the Thomas orchestra,
John B. Gough, Mark Twain, Anna
Dickenson, Elizabeth Cady, Stanton,
Frederick Douglass and others.

In Days of War.

"I have some recollections of war times, but they are indistinct. I recall the political processions, some of them very long, with many special features, Abraham Lincoln splitting rails, loads of cordwood and provisions for soldiers' families; the Wide Awakes, who marched in torchlight parades, etc. I remember the daily papers coming from Chicago, St.
Louis and Springfield with war news,
which was greedily devoured. I recollect soldiers in camp at the front grounds, and leaving for the front closely packed in freight and cattle cars. There was much excitement.
"I have a vivid recollection of a great fair or bazar, which was held during the war times at Strawn's opera house in Jacksonville, Ill., especially to raise funds for the care and relief and comfort of wounded and sick union soldiers in the south. It lasted a week or two, and the hall

was crowded afternoon and evening.
All the loyal population took part.
There were a great variety of booths,
and of things for sale. On the stage were presented tableaux, and other entertainments. Dinners and suppers were served daily. It impressed itself very forcibly on my boyish fancy
as a very wonderful event.
"I recollect also the ladies meeting often at various places to make lint
and sew on clothes and other things
to send to the soldiers.

Early Days in City.

"After removing from Chicago to Jacksonville about 1859-60 my family boarded at first a few months at the Dunlap house, quite a large and fine hotel, which was built and owned by Colonel Dunlap, a wealthy citizen, and was generally well managed and conducted in first class style. Capt.
Alexander Smith, a well known hotel
man, ran it splendidly for many years.
"Then we lived in a small cottage
on West State street near Kosciuszko street. Later we moved into a large house, in front two stories high, on Grove street, near Illinois college.
The yard was a very wide one, and extended a long distance back, affording space for a very large garden.
Here we had very fine neighbors,
most of them well to do, who lived in handsome style, having elegant residences, the grounds unusually large and imposing. Some of them had wonderful gardens, flower, fruit and vegetable.

Some Familiar Names.

"Among those neighbors were the families of Dr. Gillett (directly opposite); of David A. Smith, a prominent lawyer, whose name may be found often in old Illinois supreme court reports; of A. C. Wadsworth, an extensive hardware dealer, whose daughter married Hon. Richard Yates, Jr., and was the lady of the executive mansion of Illinois; of Robert Hooker, a druggist and banker; of Dr. L. M. Glover, pastor of the leading Presbyterian church; of Hon.
L. L. Morrison, considered the ablest lawyer in that part of the state, of whom it was said that he could find anything he wanted in Illinois supreme court reports without referring to the index; of Rev. Dr. Julian M. Sturtevant, president of Illinois college, an authority on political economy and philosophy; of Prof. Rufus C. Crampton, professor of mathematics in Illinois college; of Dr. Samuel Adams, professor of natural sciences
in the college; of Prof. Jonathan B.
Turner, a noted agriculturist; of Mr. Lathrop and Mr. Kibbe, dry goods merchants; and of Judge
Henry B. McClure, a leading lawyer.

McCallie Houses.

"After going to Jacksonville my father worked several years at his trade of watchmaker and jeweler for himself, with his shop in a front corner, first of Stewart's notion store
then of Plack & Tilton's dry goods store, both on the west side of the public square. My father was an expert in his trade and he told me he had made as much as $2,000 a year
working at the bench for himself.
He told me he could make a watch entirely himself. The long continued use, however, of an eye glass, looking at the delicate parts of a watch, finally injured his eyesight. He went into partnership with two other gentlemen, whose names I have forgotten, and they had a jewelry store on the north side of the public square.
In a year or so my father dropped out of the firm. Then he formed a partnership with my mother's cousin, Frank H. Stebbins, who had been a hotel clerk at Hartford, Conn., and was a brother of a wealthy New Yorker, who had made a fortune as a broker on the gold board in Wall street, and was the husband of one of my mother's sisters. This gentleman's name is James H. Stebbins, and he is still living in New York city. A number of years he resided in Paris, France, where he had a splendid hotel and a gallery of many fine paintings.

"The new firm was called Day &
Stebbins. My father went to New York city and purchased a large,
fine and entirely new stock of goods,
and they opened a jewelry store in the side (partitioned off) of Anderson furniture store on the west side of the public square in Jacksonville.
They did well from the start, and later moved into a much larger store room in the Walcott building on the south side of the public square,
where they flourished a number of years, doing a large business. They also sold pianos and organs, especially for the Kimball company of Chicago. For several years they sold reserved seats for Strawn's opera house, which secured them many first class free tickets to entertainments,
as well as engagement as usher at them at $1 per night. I also ushered at the college and school exercises in the city. Day & Stebbins carried a large and fine stock of goods, and bore an enviable reputation for fair and square dealing. My father eventually retired from the firm and devoted himself exclusively to the sale of pianos and organs. Mr. Stebbins and wife continued the jewelry business."

THINKS CORN LOOKS WELL.

J. B. Wood of Franklin was in the city yesterday, having just returned from attending the Menard county fair at Petersburg. After seeing many corn fields in Menard county
Mr. Wood has come home very much of the opinion that Morgan county farmers ought to feel proud of the showing made here. He says that Morgan county corn compares very favorably with what he saw while away.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK.

Washington, Sept. 13.—The high court of impeachment, composed of the judges of the court of appeals
and the members of the state senate, will meet Thursday for the trial of Governor William Sulzer of New York. The actual beginning of the trial is not expected to come until the Monday following, but the Sulzer demurrer to the impeachment,
based on the alleged illegality of the assembly taking such action in extra-session, will have to be fought out before the trial itself proceeds. It is already certain that the entire proceedings will be one of the most bitterly contested in the history of the United States. Both sides promise sensational disclosures.

Important developments in the Mexican situation are not improbable. Tuesday will be the Mexican national independence day and it is rumored that the people of the southern republic have selected it as an appropriate occasion for a nationwide anti-American demonstration.
The Alberta legislature will convene Tuesday for what is expected to be an important session. The two big issues to be brought up for consideration and action are the cooperative elevator question and the Alberta and Great Waterways matter.

Meeting for the first time in the old south, veterans of the G. A. R.
and members of numerous affiliated bodies will assemble in Chattanooga
for the 47th annual national encampment. Confederate veterans will entertain their former foes, and altogether the reunion is expected to furnish a remarkable demonstration of patriotism.

Another large gathering of the week will be the annual communication of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, which will assemble in Minneapolis. It is expected that about 75,000 members of the order from all parts of the United States Canada and Mexico will be in attendance.

Delegates from forty-two countries will assemble in Chicago for the third international congress of Refrigeration, which is to begin its sessions Wednesday. Leading scientists of the world will be on hand to address the delegates on the problems of cold storage.

Among other gatherings of the week will be the annual meeting of the National Association of Life Underwriters, at Atlantic City; the annual convention of the National Spiritualists' association, at Chicago;
the annual meeting of the Canadian Public Health association, at Regina, and the annual convention of the Canadian Manufacturers' association,
at Halifax.

ODD FELLOWS AT MINNEAPOLIS.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 13.—Odd Fellows from all parts of the United States, Canada and Mexico gathered here today for the 89th annual communication of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F., which will be opened Monday. It is estimated that by tomorrow night 75,000 members of the fraternity will be in the city. Tomorrow afternoon there will be special church services for the visitors. At the opening of the grand lodge sessions Monday morning the visitors will be welcomed by Governor Eberhart and Mayor Nye. Grané
Sire C. A. Keller of San Antonio, Texas, will deliver the response.

The big parade will take place
Wednesday evening. Great interest is being manifested by the military branch of the order in the prize contests which will take place at the fair grounds. The military display, it is said, will surpass in its splendor anything heretofore witnessed at a grand lodge meeting. Companies and degree teams from nearly every large city of the United States and Canada will participate in the prize drills.

A STRONG REFERENCE.
A young man recently applied for a position with a large printing house, and not having a letter of reference, offered his bank book. It showed a regularity of entries of deposit. It was a very strong recommendation, indicating character and persistence, which the secured for him a good position.

SATURDAY MARKET

UNUSUALLY ACTIVE

MARKET NO LONGER DEPEND-ENT UPON LEADERSHIP OF UNION PACIFIC.

Trading in Reading is lively and Stock Advances Four Points—Canadian Pacific Bounds up Over Five Points—U. P. is Outstripped
by Many Other Active Shares.

(By Associated Press)
New York, Sept. 13.—The demand for stocks was unabated today and the week's upward movement was continued in a spirited manner. It was an unusually broad and active market for Saturday. The showing of strength was more impressive than on the earlier days of the rise, for the market was no longer dependent upon the leadership of Union Pacific, whose recent advance led to the general upturn. While Union Pacific continued to go forward, it was outstripped by other active shares.

Speculation in Reading was particularly lively and the advance in that stock of four points made it the chief feature for a time. Canadian Pacific, in which foreign buying has been large recently, bounded up over five points. Many other issues made upward movements from 1 to 2 points.

Speculative sentiment responded to conditions on the exchange and there was a good deal of talk of a genuine bull market. Covering of shorts was continued and urgent.

Various explanations of the rise
were offered, touching on the improvement in some lines of business,
the ending of suspense concerning the crops and the tariff and the supposed inclination of large speculative interests, which have long held aloof
to initiate a bull campaign.

The weekly reviews of trade were favorable, pointing to a more optimistic disposition in any lines.

The bank statement threw little light on the monetary situation, except to indicate that the expected drain in the interior had not yet set in.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try It! Hair Gets Soft, Fluffy and Luxuriant at Once—No More Falling Hair.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now? (Adv.)

STORE OFFERINGS ARE COMPLETE

Merchants of Jacksonville have announced that they will observe next Thursday, Sept. 18, as a general fall opening day. There will be some special decorations in the various stores and other attractions but the stocks which will be displayed will be the most interesting and attractive features. The stores of Jacksonville have long had the reputation for carrying more extensive stocks than are usually found in a city of this size and of displaying them better and this year is no exception to the rule. In fact, shoppers who have gone into the stores a little ahead of the usual fall buying season declare that never before have they seen so many attractive offerings and at such reasonable prices. No doubt there will be many visitors at the stores next Thursday who simply want to "look around" and they will be very welcome. The merchants want the people generally to visit their stores and to see what the stocks are here in Jacksonville for they are confident that with this knowledge the people will find their stores all right when ready to buy.

MANY WILL ATTEND THE I. O. O. F. MEETING AT BEARDSTOWN

Attended Sessions of National Bar Association in Montreal—Visit of Lord High Chancellor of England Made Gathering Notable.

MR. WORTHINGTON RETURNS FROM BRIEF VISIT IN EAST

Thomas Worthington has returned to Jacksonville after an absence of two weeks spent mainly in the east. Mrs. Worthington and their son Morrison are now visiting in Massachusetts, but are expected at home some time during this week. Mr. Worthington's principal purpose in going east at this time was to attend the annual convention of the National Bar association at Montreal.

He was there for four days and said yesterday that while the program was not more excellent than the one last year at Milwaukee, that the convention was notable because of the many prominent lawyers in attendance. Particular interest attached to the present of Viscount Holdane of Cloan, the Lord High Chancellor of England.

It took some months for the officers of the Bar association to secure a promise of the visit from the Lord Chancellor. Two special envoys were sent to England to arrange the matter and authority for the coming of the notable visitor was finally gained from the king. Not since the time of Wolsey has a high chancellor visited this country. As he is the keeper of the official seal of the kingdom, among other duties it is naturally somewhat difficult to arrange for his absence from England.

The convention paid notable honors to President Taft on several occasions during the convention and his address was heard with very great interest. As has already been stated through the press, Mr. Taft was elected president for the ensuing year. Following the convention Mr. Worthington along with Judge Higbee of Pittsfield, Judge Matheny of Springfield and several other Illinois attorneys made a trip up the Saugenay river, which was especially enjoyable.

"CASCARETS" RELIEVE SICK, SOUR STOMACH

Move Acids, Gases and Clogged-up Waste from Stomach, Liver, Bowels—Cure Indigestion.

Get a 10-cent box now.

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, dizziness and sick headache, means a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too. (Adv.)

WHY NOT THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE?

I believe I am right when I say that any young woman who leaves Jacksonville to obtain a college education does so without knowing the advantages she may obtain at home.

A number of years ago the middle west was poorly supplied with colleges, and young women, desirous of the best facilities, were obliged to go East to college. This situation exists no longer. The middle west now has colleges which are the equal if not the superior of the Eastern colleges.

Instead of going East our young women now attend the Woman's College. You ask why? I will tell you:

A good college must meet the following requirements:

FIRST—The instruction should be thorough.

SECOND—The equipment should be generous.

THIRD—The health of the student should be carefully considered.

FOURTH—All the surroundings and associations should be healthful, and pleasant.

FIFTH—The Christian influences should be positive and attractive.

SIXTH—The charges should be reasonable.

The Woman's College has grown beyond the knowledge of most Jacksonville people. The equipment here compares favorably with that of any woman's college in the country. The equality of the collegiate work done here ranks equally with that of any of the Eastern colleges, and, in our special departments—Music, Art, Expression and Home Economics—we have the facilities which are superior to those offered by most woman's colleges, regardless of location. A fair comparison is invited.

Why should any young woman leave Jacksonville for school advantages? At any rate, come and tell us what you want before doing so. We think we can save you hundreds of dollars—and surely that is worth while.

Will you let us show you?

JOSEPH R. HARKER

Catalogues may be obtained at any of the music or book stores. Registration Days—Sept. 15-16. The College office is open daily from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. and arrangements may be made at any time.

LADIES' and GENTLEMEN'S

Tailoring is a necessity, and naturally appeals to all men and women who wish to dress well. Many have become careless and allowed themselves to buy and wear ill-fitting clothes because they seem to look well and cheap when displayed in the stores.

If you knew you could get a perfect fitting, stylish, tailor made to your measure garment for about the same price you pay for the average ready-made garments, would you hesitate to have your next garment tailor-made?

Yet it is a fact that we are making clothes for thousands of customers every year who do not pay any more for them tailor-made to their measure than the average ready-made garments.

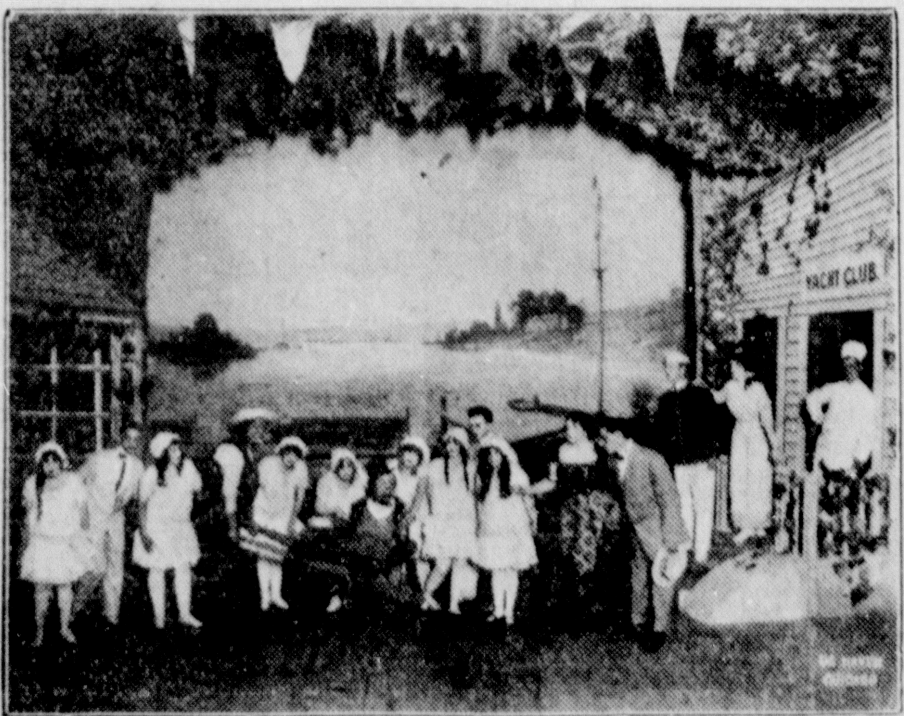

When making these statements, reason demands of the public to investigate. We cannot force you in our store. We cannot go to each one personally with our stock to convince you. Our only alternative is to publicly announce these facts through the various advertising mediums at our command with all the force that words and space command.

In both ladies' and gentlemen's departments we employ the best cutters and tailors in the trade. Our stock of piece goods is of good honest all-wool fabric, bought in such quantities direct from the mills, that insure the lowest possible prices.

Our aim is to get up a garment which can be sold at a price within reach of all; at the same time as good in workmanship, style, fit and fabric as other high priced tailors. This can only be done on quantity production, thereby reducing the cost and our profits to a minimum, all of which is a saving to those who are fortunate to have us tailor their clothes.

A visit to our store will convince the most skeptical of the facts in the above statements.

FRANK WALTMAN SERIOUSLY INJURED BY KICK FROM HORSE

Is a Patient at Our Savior's Hospital, Suffering From a Broken Nose and Ugly Cut on Face.

Frank Waltman, who resides on a farm east of the city, was seriously injured early Saturday morning, when a horse which he was currying kicked him in the face, fracturing his nose and cutting a severe gash in his face.

He was found by the hired man, lying face downward and unconscious. Dr. F. A. Norris was called immediately and the patient was removed to Our Savior's hospital. He was still unconscious at a late hour last night. The horse's hoof struck the left side of his nose, fracturing that member, and cutting a large gash in his face, which required several stitches to close. His eye was uninjured, and although he is suffering quite a little pain, it is thought he will soon be able to be out.
